

End-of-year tradition: write and perform a poem of any type representing the theme...

NO PLACE FOR HATE: Together at a Distance

How it works:

1. One to three students in a group, all members must participate and perform.
  - a. Individuals submit videos directly on Flipgrid
  - b. Groups submit sharable link. (See TEAMS site for collaboration ideas.)
2. Join Poetry Slam TEAM <https://tinyurl.com/y7djbd4t> -- this is also where videos will be submitted.
3. 3. Poem – 90 Sec Flipgrid Video, memorized (highly suggested), any type (lyric, narrative, free verse, sonnet, etc.) If your video is not through Flipgrid (groups), you must submit sharable link on TEAMS.
4. Dramatic presentation.
5. Represents theme: No Place for Hate: Diversity, Friendship, Acceptance, Tolerance (...at a Distance)
6. No inappropriate language.
7. Teachers must approve video before it will be viewable. You may be asked to submit script.
8. All poems due by 4:00pm May 13. Submit on Flipgrid. (Please plan ahead.)
9. Around 20 finalists will be included in the compilation video.
10. May 14-- Judging
11. May 15 – Poetry Slam Watch Party (Time TBD)
12. Awards announced in digital edition of The Howling Times
